Weekly Competition Rules

2023

The Weekly Competition is a fun way to add interest and interest to your round of golf. Competition Rules change weekly, with a combination of holes to be included, and always factoring in your course handicap. As an example: "Evens" – count all even hole scores minus half your handicap. To enter Weekly Competition the following rules apply:

1. You must have a GHIN handicap and must post your score for that day.
2. You must complete an 18 hole round and correctly complete the competition sheet that matches the tee that you used (gold, purple or green).
3. You must have your score attested by a West Seattle Women's Club Member or West Seattle Club member.
4. Weekly Competition will run from Tuesday through the following Monday. A player may enter any day during the week and more than once but only the best score will be used.
5. You must pick up and record a 10X on your competition sheet once you have reached 10 strokes on any hole. Anything lower than 10 strokes you must "PUTT OUT". There are no GIMMIES in competition.
6. Members of the WSWG are encouraged to participate in weekly competition, the more members who participate, the more payouts can be given. In order for weekly compensation to be distributed, a minimum of 5 scorecards must be turned in from each tee.
7. Weekly competition winners/winnings will be posted.
8. Weekly competition winnings will be put into the pro shop account once a month under the players name and can be used to purchase merchandise.

Birdies/Chip-ins/Eccies

Birdies, Chip-ins and Eccies may be posted with each completed 18 hole round and must be attested by a West Seattle Women's Club Member or West Seattle Club member.
